Dear University of California Board of Regents,

I write today in strong support of the new UCI Medical Center Irvine-Newport. The center promises to be a lasting investment in the health and economy of Orange County and Southern California region.

The innovative medicine the new center will host will attract medical experts to our region and expand on the high-quality healthcare our residents deserve. The project will bring thousands of jobs and partnership opportunities for our local businesses. UCI has a long history of commitment to supporting growth and health in our communities. The UCI Medical Center in Orange is testament to that and I am proud to have that institution in my district.

Adjacent to my district, the UCI Medical Center Irvine-Newport is the county's only academic medical center bound with a health system and comprehensive college of health sciences. As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, our region has faced one of the most trying times in our history. This new health delivery platform is a much needed and welcomed public health resource for the residents and families of our community.

I fully support this endeavor and look forward to the completion of the project and the healthcare it will provide.

Sincerely,
